FLAG INSTALLATION IN SOUTHOLD VILLAGE

Kudos to the cadets from Southold, Mattituck and Greenport NJROTC who helped the Southold Village Merchants prepare the flags for display in Southold Village!

Tibetan Tones™ Sound Wave Therapy

In Sound Massage sessions I use therapy grade tuned metal bowls which, when struck by a series of mallets, direct different frequencies of sound waves through the body. Muscles & Fascia relax and unwind, Mental chatter quiets, Inflammation breaks down & disperses, Blood & Lymph flow become uninhibited and Meridian & Energy Systems clear & balance. Deep meditative states often occur quickly.

Group Sound Sessions have participants laying on futons with blankets surrounded by 15 tuned bowls, 2 deep tone Gongs, Seadrum & Rain instruments.

Group Sessions run an hour and are held in the loft at Eastern Sun Holistic Health Feather Hill Village
53345 Main Rd, Southold
Wednesdays from 6-7pm.
$25. pp

As a follow up to last month's cover photo of the "Civil War Veterans' Reunion in Greenport", our archives produced this brochure that lists all of the names of the local volunteers. All hailed from Orient, Greenport, Southold and Mattituck. Many of these surnames are still here on the North Fork.

A BEACH PICNIC

Dinner at the beach was a common family summer event. Sometimes picnic baskets of food spread out on a blanket sometimes a circle of rocks filled with charcoal to roast hot dogs on a long fork followed by marshmallows. If you talk to anyone 60 or older who grew up on the North Fork, the question to ask is "Was your family a Peconic Bay family or a Long Island Sound family?" —it seems it was always just one or the other. (Not counting the special picnics at Orient State Beach Park!)

BEACH BUGGIES

In the early 50s a few Southold teenagers began a new craze converting autos to beach buggies. For more than twenty years beach buggies roared up and down the Southold Sound beaches, steadily attracting more and more onlookers. These even took place in the winter, when an afternoon at Kenney's Beach watching the beach buggies became the best show in town. (Photo from the Peconic Bay Shopper archives.)
