From John Ebeling:

Another trip down Memory Lane. But more interesting than the slick road and the accident is the service station itself which was situated on the North Road (Route 48). I remember going there with my dad to gas up his Chevy. At the time the station was known as "Paul's Service Center" or something to that effect. Paul's remained in business throughout the 1950s, and maybe into the early 1960s. I think Paul's Service Center met its demise around 1963 when the North Road (henceforth known as County Road 48) was widened to four lanes. The BP gas station on Route 48 in Peconic is situated exactly where Paul's Service Center used to be. Wow! The years sure do slip on by.

From Bill Zebroski who was employed there: Pauls Service Station belonged to Harold Paul and his son Bob Paul. Their motto was "Your Need is Our Business". There was a small store that sold beer and cigarettes as well as cold cuts and other items (because there had to be general items for sale to establish a store and be able to sell beer.)

We thank John and Bill for sharing.

BIG NEWS!

Equipped with a 22-inch HD touchscreen, the Peloton bike offers instant access to classes streamed directly from Peloton's NYC studio, led by world-class NYC instructors.

These classes vary by length from 5 to 120 minutes and have different themes and music styles, ensuring that you will find a class that fits your mood, motivation, and schedule.

With up to 14 live rides streamed daily and over 4,000 on-demand classes in the library, the Peloton experience is immersive, entertaining and social.

Take a class live (if you happen to get on the bike at the same time that a class is happening at the studio) or on-demand (from Peloton's extensive class library).

That's it! The Peck House! Great stories and photos. Thanks for the re-visit.

Interesting how places have such histories. To me it was a spooky house that was always there in the background.

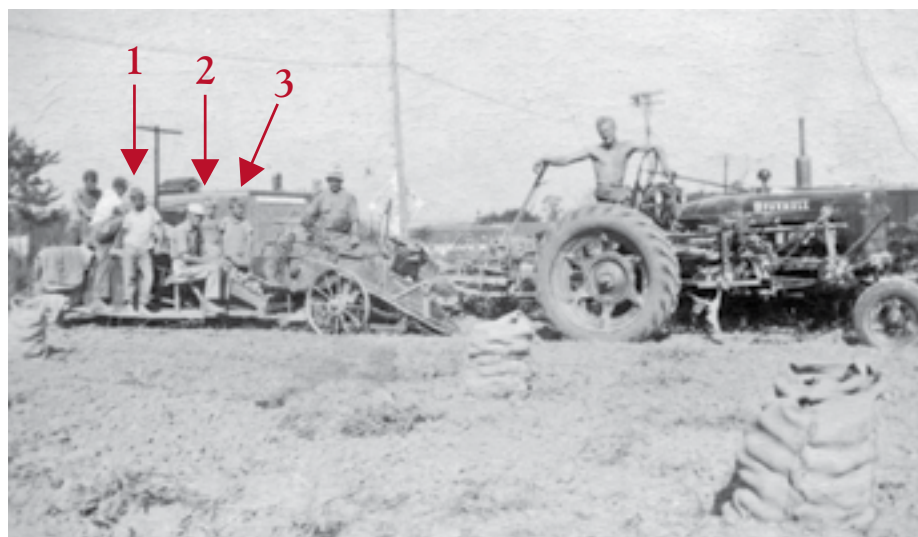

And interestingly the kindergarten shot was of my class, only it was the year before I came to Southold. I tell myself I recognize a couple of kids.

Thanks again for the memories.

This picture appeared in our April issue with a story about Chester Sawastynowicz

The caption read: Chet helped his father plant and harvest potatoes as part of his contribution to the family farm. In the photo to the left, Chet drives the tractor that pulls the potato digger, a machine that conveys potatoes into bins so they can be placed into burlap bags. His dad Louis is standing (center) on the digging machine with other helpers.

Thanks to a reader who stopped in the Academy and happened to be in the photo, we can add a few names:

- 1 — Peter Metski
- 2 — Marian
- 3 — Richard Grathwohl

Thank you Richard for sharing!

NORTH FORK FRESH SATURDAY JUNE 16

The Oysterponds Historical Society (OHS) will host North Fork Fresh from 5pm to 7pm at the Schoolhouse Lawn on Village Lane, Orient. This fabulous outdoor summer kick-off will celebrate local music and food from across the North Fork. Highlights will include music by local favorites The Mud Flats, tastings from Bedell Cellars and Stirling Sake, the Greenport Harbor Brewery beer truck, desserts and sweets from Four and Twenty Blackbirds Orient and the Orient Country Store, and small bites contributed by favorite spots on the North fork and beyond, including The Frisky Oyster, Good Food, Grace & Grit, Houseman Restaurant, Lucharitos Taqueria, Magic Fountain, The North Fork Shack, Orient Inn & La Crêpe C'est Si Bon, PAWPAW, A Taste of the North Fork, The Village Cheese Shop, and many more! Tasting highlights will include local cheeses, a raw clam bar, pickled quail eggs, shrimp, horseradish, cocktails, beer, ice cream, strawberries, desserts and, of course, local wines. There will be a raffle of fun summer items including Adirondack chairs, restaurant gift certificates, a beach basket, fishing gifts, a kids basket, a pet basket, baking supplies, fishing trips and paddle board lessons. The event will also feature a pie contest and prizes for the winners, curated by local pie shop Four and Twenty Blackbirds. Tickets are on sale now, $75 for OHS members and $85 for non-members. Raffle tickets are $20. All proceeds benefit the OHS. Attendance is limited. (Tickets can also be purchased at the door if available). For more info or to purchase event tickets, advance raffle tickets or sign up for the pie contest call (631) 323-2480 or visit www.oysterpondshistoricalsociety.org.

YARD SALE SATURDAY JUNE 16

SOUTHOLD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

54325 Main Road, Southold · (631) 765-5500 · www.southoldhistoricalsociety.org

Ten Squared is an annual fundraising exhibition for the Southold Historical Society. In this non-juried exhibition, artists are invited to submit pieces that are exactly 10" x 10". The theme is North Fork Wine. The art work will be shown during the summer exhibit at the Southold Museum complex, "Clink! A Toast to Long Island Wine". Each work will be sold for $100, split between the artist and the Society. Artists may submit one to three works in any mediums on wood or canvas. Finished works are due in the Society office at the Prince Building, 54325 Main Road during the week of Monday, June 25. The sale will be the first two weekends in July. For info: Lee Cleary art@southoldhistoricalsociety.org or call the Society at 631-765-5500.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SERIES SUNDAY JUNE 24

North Fork Reform Synagogue presents A DAUGHTER'S SEARCH A MOTHER'S SECRET A HOLOCAUST #METOO 2-3pm at the Mattituck/Laurel Library, 13900 Main Road, Mattituck. New York journalist Marisa Fox discovered her mother had a hidden identity nearly 20 years after she died. Her search for the truth led her to unravel a large coverup involving tens of thousands of Jewish girls from Upper Silesia trafficked as Nazi slave and subjected to sexual abuse. Fox's documentary "By A Thread" is a Holocaust #MeToo reckoning whose time has come. Free admission; light refreshments. northforkreformsynagogue.org. Info: 631 298-4422.

SEUSSICAL™ • JULY 19-22, 26-29, AUGUST 2-5

The Cat in the Hat tells the story of Horton, an elephant who discovers a speck of dust that contains the Whos, including Jojo, a Who child sent off to military school for thinking too many “thinks.” Horton faces a double challenge: not only must he protect the Whos from a world of naysayers and dangers, but he must guard an abandoned egg, left in his care by the irresponsible Mayzie La Bird. Although Horton faces ridicule, danger, kidnapping and a trial, the intrepid Gertrude McFuzz never loses faith in him. Ultimately, the powers of friendship, loyalty, family and community are challenged and emerge triumphant.

UPCOMING EXHIBITS & EVENTS

Saturday, July 7, 1pm OPENING RECEPTION: The Silver Screens of Suffolk. Celebrating the History of Film: 1900s to 1960s. Free Opening Day Admission. Light refreshments will be served. The magic of cinema has been captivating America for over 100 years. Though the origins of early cinema are complex, Suffolk County played a surprising role in the early stages of the silent film industry! This exhibit will celebrate the history of film, illustrating its early connections to Suffolk County and our area’s charming local theaters, while also outlining cinema history through a showcase of one of the finest private collections of movie posters, programs, heralds, and theater window cards. From silent films to Hollywood legends, sci-fi to Disney animations, Silver Screens of Suffolk promises a fun-filled adventure for all ages! In our Grand Staas Gallery, July 7, 2018 to February 28, 2019.

Thursday, July 19 pm BOOK & BOTTLE: Steve Wick, Heaven and Earth: The Last Farmers of the North Fork. The Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist will discuss farmers of the North Fork, one of the oldest farming communities in the entire USA. Today, more than 375 years later, the descendants of the same families struggle to preserve the area’s legacy of land and hard work. Members Free; Non-Members $5. Includes wine, cheese and admission to current exhibits. RSVP Requested: 631-727-2881 x100.

CURRENT EXHIBITS

Spotlight Series: A Moment of Tranquili – TEA. Teapots of the 19th Century. An exhibit featuring teapots of the nineteenth century from our permanent collection. The SCHS has over a hundred teapots and is proud to present the finest examples in this exhibit. In our History in the Hall Gallery through July 28, 2018.

Spotlight Series: The Paintings. Highlights from the Permanent Collection. With over 250 paintings in our collection, this exhibit features selected oil paintings by a range of 19th- and 20th-century professional and amateur artists chosen for their beauty, quality, and community connection. In our Weathervane Galley until June 16, 2018.

OFF-SITE EXHIBITION: Suffolk County Pine Barrens Pictorial Exhibit. A standing display provides an overview of the history of the Pine Barrens and the critical role this region plays in the protection of Suffolk County’s precious groundwater. On display at the Suffolk County Water Authority Education Center: 260 Motor Pkwy, Hauppauge, NY. 631-292-6565 or EdCenterTours@SCWA.com.

ONGOING: Membership Drive! Celebrating 131 years! Join the Suffolk County Historical Society and support local history preservation. Founded in 1886, SCHS is a non-profit organization that collects and preserves the rich history of Suffolk County. We operate a history museum, offer an expansive library and archives, and host a multitude of events, programs, and educational lectures and workshops. Our unique collection reflects more than three centuries of local history! Visit our website or call 631-727-2881 to become a member!

What does it take to get this sweet, spayed, female dog a forever family? Three years ago, Coco was abandoned on the back porch of a house. She fended for herself for days and days. It’s hard to imagine the goofy brown and white pit bull mix, who loves people so much, to have been left in such a cold-hearted way. Her amber eyes twinkled when the League rescued her. Coco’s a staff and volunteer favorite because she’s just such a special girl. At 8 years old, she’s still got a lot of energy and wants to run and play. She also likes to lean into her people.

COCO

This precious pooch is so special a generous supporter has paid her adoption fees up front. For the right fit, Coco is free.

AMY

A year ago, a beautiful ebony cat was saved from a hoarding situation. Amy is 6 year old cat who likes to do her own thing but then likes to spend quality time with her people doing things she likes to do. Like playing with the feather toy, searching for treats, or being gently rubbed behind the ears. She’s also ready to discover new things too! She gets along great with other cats and would do well in a home with some feline brethren. Her eyes are jade or sea foam green or some shade of emerald. Amy is as gorgeous as she is a terrific companion.

AFFORDABLE RATES • LOCAL EXPOSURE • FREE AD DESIGN

Established in 1978, the PBS has provided historical photos and stories by local authors about places, people and events from past decades for over 40 years. Our goal is to help record and preserve North Fork history.

Local residents can enjoy a look at the past (many who grew up locally can "remember when") and visitors can see where to shop, eat or find a service provider. From May through October a centerfold map guides tourists to stores, eateries and services. A Calendar of Events is also a part of every issue, with free listings for local organizations.
