24/7 EMERGENCY SERVICE

The above 1946 photo of the Southold High School students "The Swami of Bagdad" production appeared in our last two issues, with a request for help in naming the students. Readers who did not see it can download the issues from the Peconic Bay Shopper page at www.academyprintingservices.com and see the full photo and list of names. We received even more feedback, shared below.

Bob Kaelin added:

#52 — is definitely Frank Dickeski. His name and photo is in the '49 Snuff Box with "The Swami" credit alongside his picture at the top of the list In my letter of last month, I might have mistakenly used his brother's name, Stanley.

#41 — Could have been Emily Kaelin. Come to think of it, I don't see Carol Bergen's name month the 64 listed to the right, Carol would have been in the class of 1950.

#34 — I may have mistakenly thought this was Joan Newbold, but her name isn't on the list of 64 either. Back then there were three Newbold girls in school. Meryle (on the name listing and recently deceased) was the daughter of Bob Newbold. Jean Newbold was the daughter of Max Newbold and has a sister Joan who was taller and had dark hair. If I remember right, Joan's married name was Klarquist and she, too, passed away.

#38 — Looks like Earl Dickerson, but Earl didn't finish school and left to join the service, so he wouldn't have been in a Snuff Box graduation photo with credits.

When I was a kid, I knew most of the boys and girls, but now (even with a strong magnifying glass) I have a problem mating the names with the faces. -Bob Kaelin

Melanie Doroski emailed:

#11 — is her Dad, John Donald Young, graduated in 1947.

Susan Tyler emailed:

#1 — is her Dad, Herbert Fisher.

A note from Barbara Beebe:

"That was fun, the two in the shadow, I am uncertain."

TWO PASSOVER SEDERS FRIDAY & SATURDAY APRIL 19 & 20

Members of Congregation Tifereth Israel, their guests, and visitors to the North Fork are invited to participate in the synagogue's Passover Seders, held traditionally on the first and second nights of the eight-day holiday. Rabbi Gadi Capela, spiritual leader of the synagogue, will lead the Seder service on both nights, in the community room of the synagogue in Greenport, beginning at 6pm.

This year, the first Passover Seder falls on the Christian holiday of Good Friday. In essence, while Christians are remembering the crucifixion of Jesus, Jews will be participating in the Seder ceremony. This concurrence adds significance for some observers of both faiths. The night before Jesus was crucified, his last meal was a Seder.

The Seder follows an order of service prescribed in a special prayer book, called a haggadah, which tells the story, explains the symbols, addresses the issue of slavery, reflects on the beauty of freedom, and expresses gratitude to God for life's many blessings. Among the symbolic foods served at the Seder is a mixture called haroset, made from chopped apples, nuts, wine and spices, which symbolizes the mortar that the Jewish slaves made for bricks in Egypt. Matza is served as a reminder of the hastily prepared unrisen bread made by the Jews as they fled from Egypt across the desert. A roasted lamb bone is a reminder of the sacrifice that spared the Jewish children from God's plague. Salt water represents tears, and horseradish the bitterness of slavery, but parsley and eggs symbolize rebirth.

The dinner will feature traditional foods associated with the holiday, such as chicken soup with matza balls, homemade gefilte fish, roasted brisket, potato pudding, and fruit and nut desserts. The cost is $60 per person, no charge for children 12 and under. Reservations are required. Please call Elaine Goldman at 631-765-3504 ASAP to reserve a place at the Seder table. Congregation Tifereth Israel is located at 519 Fourth Street in Greenport, immediately south of the intersection of Fourth and Front Streets.

IN THE LIBRARY'S ART GALLERY

MAY: "Surroundings" – Photography by Hollye Gilbride

"I decided to do 52 things, one a week for a year. The first was to take a picture a day for 365 days. Some days I took hundreds, others, when I realized the day was almost over, dinner became my muse. Each day I chose a photograph and this exhibit is a sampling. The project taught me to explore my environment, and not only to look at, but to really see what surrounds me. Enjoy!

Hollye Gilbride is a Mattituck resident, and this is her second show in our library gallery.
