12TH ANNUAL NORTH FORK FOODIE TOUR SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

The North Fork of Long Island is famous for its delectable fare. Here, the tradition of farming has continued and expanded. Now it's taken on yet another life as artisans have begun to produce distinctive foods and explore methods of sustainable agriculture. The 12th Annual North Fork Foodie Tour, scheduled from 10 am to 4pm, will include 20 locations representing a wide array of food producers on the North Fork, all providing behind-the-scenes tours of their farms, vineyards and other establishments.

The Foodie Tour is a self-guided tour and provides the opportunity for all who attend to visit North Fork producers of unique, local, artisanal food, wine and beer. It showcases the best of what the North Fork has to offer. Hear, touch, feel and taste what makes the products, the people that produce them and the North Fork so special. There will be fun, educational and delicious activities for all ages.

Participating Tour Locations include: Peconic Land Trust Ag Center at Charnews Farm, Deep Roots Farm, KK's The Farm, Shared Farmhouse Table, Catapano Dairy Farm, Greenport Harbor Brewery, Krupski's Vegetable & Pumpkin Farm, Raphael Vineyard, Sang Lee Farms, Satur Farms, 8 Hands Farm, Koppert Cress, Browder's Birds, Craft Master Hops, Macari Wines, Mar-gene Farms, Goodale Farms, Lavender by the Bay, North Fork Flower Farm. A full schedule of events will be listed in the Foodie Tour Guide Booklet.

Speakers at Charnews Farm:

- Chef John Ross, formerly of Ross's Restaurant and food writer for the Suffolk Times demonstrates a seasonal dish made with local ingredients - YUM!
- Chef Taylor Knapp, Head Snail Wrangler at Peconic Escargot tells about the challenges and rewards of starting a business to raise snails to provide fresh escargots (never canned or frozen) to discerning local chefs.
- Leslie Merinoff talks about starting Matchbook Distilling Co., a full-scale, at-your-service, bespoke distillery and incubator which works with their clients to create the custom spirits they dream up.
- Ken Schneider of Really Good Fruit Spreads will tell you about how he got started in the "jam" business. Learn about small scale food processing from kitchen to market.

ROCCO

This big beautiful boy could be quite a handful but he's really well behaved. At about 5 years old, he's believed to be an American bulldog mix.

Rocco's a mellow couch potato who loves people. If you've been looking for a gorgeous, loyal, this is your dog!

ALVIN

This is one lonely kitty. Sure he's got lots of feline friends at the shelter, but he misses having a person of his own. Alvin came to the shelter because his beloved guardian passed away. He would love nothing more than to live out the rest of his days with someone who loves him.

IN THE LIBRARY'S ART GALLERY:

AUGUST: "Quiet Places" – Paintings by Diane Alec Smith

Diane has lived and worked in Cutchogue, New York her entire life. Diane's studio, where she creates most of her artwork and teaches classes to art students of all ages, is located on the same private farmland in Cutchogue on which she grew up. Diane has been painting for over 40 years, primarily with acrylics, and teaching for over 35 years. Her art reflects the natural beauty of the east end of Long Island, where stunning vistas have provided a lifetime of inspiration. The "Quiet Places" exhibited in this show are representations of creeks, inlets and wetlands of the North Fork; early morning, sunset and moonlit scenes reflecting the tranquil beauty of nature found throughout the east end of Long Island.

CURRENT EXHIBITS

• The Silver Screens of Suffolk. Celebrating the History of Film: 1900s to 1960s. The magic of cinema has been captivating America for over 100 years. Though the origins of early cinema are complex, Suffolk County played a surprising role in the early stages of the silent film industry with some of the earliest production studios located on Long Island. This major exhibit celebrates the history of film, illustrating its early connections to Suffolk County and our area's charming local theaters, while also outlining cinema history through a showcase of one of the finest private collections of movie posters, programs, heralds, and theater window cards. From silent films to Hollywood legends, sci-fi to Disney animations, Silver Screens of Suffolk offers a fun-filled adventure for all ages! In our Grand Staas Gallery thru April 27, 2019.

OFF-SITE EXHIBITION

Suffolk County Pine Barrens Pictorial Exhibit. A standing display on loan from the Suffolk County Historical Society provides an overview of the history of the Pine Barrens and the critical role this region plays in the protection of Suffolk County's precious groundwater. On display at the Suffolk County Water Authority Education Center: 260 Motor Pkwy, Hauppauge, NY. 631-292-6565 or EdCenterTours@SCWA.com.

Reader Feedback

After printing this photo in the June issue of this year we received conflicting information, printed in July, still trying to clarify the location of Goubeauds Home Appliances. Here's some clarification.

According to an ad in the February 24th, 1955 issue of the Long Island Traveller Watchman the business was located at 313 South St, opposite the municipal parking lot. This would be the current location of the IGA. The business moved to Southold in December of 1955. — Adam Kaelin

I just saw the June copy of The Peconic Bay Shopper. On page 5 there is a photo of the U.S. Post Office at the site of the former Goubeaud Home Appliances. That was my father Charles Goubeaud's building and yes it is now the site of IGA. It was a thrill to see the photo. Thanks. — Ann Goubeaud Fox

Goubeaud's Home Appliances was located where the IGA is now. The door in your photograph faced 1st Street. My father's store was previously located diagonally across the street, on the northeast corner of First and South Streets. He shared this space with Terry's Bike Shop. Google Maps indicates Triangle Sea Sales is there now.

In the ads for the appliance store that I found on the NYS Historical Newspapers site, the address changes from "corner of First and South" to "313 First Street" in 1952. The last ad I found for the first address appeared in the Traveler on June 26, 1952. The first ad with the 313 address appeared on Sept. 4, 1952.

By the way, there was a bonus for our family in your June 2018 issue. My mother is in the first grade photo on page 15! — Katherine Goubeaud Dodd
