Ann Sledjeski sitting on the back porch keeping an eye on the mother hen and her chicks. I wonder if the hen ultimately became a "soup chicken."

The Sledjeski's "For Sale" sign. Note the two telephone numbers. No area code, no exchange. Just 1095 or 122. A simpler time.

So now I really am finished. I haven't provided a great deal of information about the Faulkners or the history of Benesta Lodge, but this did give me an opportunity to reflect upon the five or six years I spent there as a kid. Yes, it was a simpler time. No Internet, no Instagram, no TikTok, no Facebook, no nothing! Just chickens, tractors, peas, praying mantises, poison ivy, chestnuts, bonfires, cow milking, hay lofts, Gangbusters and The Shadow, not to mention games like Tag, Hide and Seek, Mother May I, Red Rover, and Spud. Yeah, it was a simpler time. It was a great time and a great place to grow up. Living at Benesta Lodge was fun! ☺

Editor's Note: Sincere thanks to John Eberling for sharing his memories of Benesta Lodge during the Sledjeski Years.

Additional thanks go to Ann Sledjeski Pendzick echoed much of John's memories, adding several anecdotes of her own. Her father Stephen farmed several parcels of land in Greenport, all not attached. His frustration with that dynamic led to their decision to sell Benesta Lodge and move to Peconic, build a new home and farm "all in one spot".

August 7 through October 30 SEEKING SANCTUARY: 125 Years of Synagogues on Long Island. In our Gish Gallery beginning August 7, 2021. Exhibit sponsored by the Jewish Historical Society of Long Island. Curated by Brad Kolodny. Opening Reception/Meet the Curator: Thursday, August 12, 6-8 pm. Free to members; $5/non-member. Includes light refreshments. Brad Kolodny set out to document and photograph every synagogue that has ever existed in Nassau and Suffolk, and four years later he completed that task, having photographed 385 buildings that at one time were, or currently are, being used as a synagogue. This exhibit showcases a sampling of Kolodny's images based on their historic significance, architectural design, and other attributes. Together, the images tell the story of Judaism's evolution on LI—from the humble beginnings of the first synagogue built in 1896 and the massive growth following World War II to today.

Now through September 25 EXHIBIT: America in Print: Prints, Lithographs and Etchings from the SCHS Collection in our Staas Gallery. Before the 1800s, art was largely reserved for the wealthy, but with the invention of lithography in 1796 – and particularly color lithography in 1837 - printers were able to mass-produce beautiful color prints that were cheap enough for anyone to buy. Suddenly, art was available to all and everyone could decorate their homes and offices with any of the thousands of images offered by such notable printers as Louis Prang, Napoleon Sarony, and Currier and Ives. Featuring themes of nineteenth-century life in landscapes, cityscapes, ships, racehorses, scenes from literature, politics, Civil War battle scenes, and rare examples of “lithographic Long Island,” this exhibit captures the evolution of an American art form.

Now through September 11 INTERACTIVE EXHIBIT: What the #*!! Is THAT?: Ordinary Objects From Yesteryear That Are Mysteries to Our Modern Eyes. In our Weathervane Gallery. The objects we use to get through an ordinary day have changed tremendously over time, so much so that many everyday items once used at work or at home by our grandparents (or great-grandparents) are now virtually unrecognizable. This exhibit showcases a selection of the most mysterious, interesting, and challenging objects from our collection to baffle, befuddle, and bemuse. Can you guess what they are? Bring your cellphone for an interactive experience! Curated by Richard Doctorow.

SILVERBROOK ART GLASS WORKS (1943-1976): In our History in the Hall display cases. For the first time in over 30 years our entire Silverbrook Collection is showcased in our museum! After fleeing their native Czechoslovakia in 1937 in fear of a Hitler invasion, the Kreutz brothers came to the United States as fifth-generation glass-blowers, settling in Suffolk County and establishing their glassworks company on Flanders Road in Riverhead. Unlike most other glassware manufactured by machinery at the time, the Kreutz brothers used the traditional centuries-old hand-blown glass techniques they had learned in their homeland.

OFF-SITE EXHIBITION: Suffolk County Pine Barrens Pictorial Exhibit. A display on loan from the SCHS provides an overview of the history of the Pine Barrens and the critical role this region plays in the protection of our precious groundwater. On display at the SCWA Education Center: 260 Motor Pkwy, Hauppauge. 631-292-6565 or EdCenter-Tours@SCWA.com.

ONGOING: Membership Drive! Membership Drive! Celebrating 135 years! Join the Suffolk County Historical Society and support local history preservation. We operate a history museum, offer an expansive library and archives, and host a multitude of events, programs, and educational lectures and workshops.
