Tuesdays thru December 22, 10am (20 minute Zoom Session), Breathe Together. Join us once a week to practice the kind of deep breathing that fosters calm well-being and can improve our health and our outlook. To register email Kathy@southoldlibrary.org.

Sunday, December 6, 3pm, A Good Old-Fashioned Christmas: A FILMED HOLIDAY CONCERT. Join us for some pleasurable holiday cheer. Valarie will entertain us with traditional songs and share some stories about the holiday season. Please call the library 631-765-5773 to register.

Wednesday, December 9, 7pm, Zoom Session, A Very Vintage Christmas. Take a stroll back in time as we recall the sights and sounds of vintage Christmases of our childhood. Focus on Christmas decorations, animated classics and music from the 50's through the 70's. A little extra time will be spent discussing Don Duga, one of the lead animators of Frosty the Snowman who lived on the East End. Please call 631-765-2077 to register.

Tuesday, December 15, 7:30pm, Zoom Session, A Visual History of Santa. Think you know about Santa Claus? Think again! The legend of Santa began with St. Nicholas in modern day Turkey. Christmas was banned in England and in the early days of Colonial America. The image of Santa was largely a product of commercialism. Explore the visual image of this iconic symbol. Please call the library 631-765-2077 to register.

Tuesday, January 12, 6:30pm, Zoom Webinar, Falconry on Long Island. The sport of falconry has a rich history throughout the world. It involves a dedicated and knowledgeable falconer, and a healthy, well-trained raptor working together. Meet Chris Paparo and his Red-tailed Hawk as he talks about the instincts of raptors, how they are trained and what it took to become a falconer. Email Kathy@southoldlibrary.org to register.

Thursday, January 21, 6:30-8:00pm, Zoom Session, Long Island's Maritime History: Stories of Tragedy and Rescue, Eco-Photo Explorers. From early colonial days to modern times, the shores and offshore waters of Long Island have often been the stage for fascinating drama. Hear the story of the Pelican, a fishing boat lost off Montauk in 1951, along with other spell-binding tales of marine rescues and shipwrecks. The program will conclude with the history of the Life Saving Services here on Long Island. Email Kathy@southoldlibrary.org to register.
