A note to our readers...

The Peconic Bay Shopper usually prints 11 issues a year, February to December. This year we decided to take a hiatus and will publish the next issue on April 13, 2023. Thank you for all your support. Wishing wish you a warm and cozy winter! Look for us in April!

In this issue...

...our second set of restaurant/bar photos courtesy of Rory Klinge of Greenport. During the 30s, 40s and 50s photographs of the bar and the exterior of the facility were required by the New York State Liquor Authority. Many of the photos have a stamp on the back with the date received by the Liquor Authority and some have names of the owner at that time.

Some of the restaurant photos we will be sharing in upcoming issues include Barth's, Harbor Inn, Mattituck Bowling Alley Restaurant, Polish Hall, Sullivan's, Cedar Beach Inn and more. If any readers have historic information about these restaurants, please share so we may include the history. Thank you!

Reader Feedback!

In our September issue the info given to us for both the year and the school was wrong for this picture. We had identified the students as: Top row, left to right: Doris Valentine, Mrs. Sophie Hansen, Josephine Diaz, Blanch Howard, Front row, left to right: Arthur Hunton, Chubby Hester, Teddy Kidder, Eddie (?), Donald (?)

We were contacted by Joy Strasser who pointed out that the date (1916) did not match the clothing, so in the November issue we asked if any readers could help. We thank Bob Jester for the following: This picture is of students from Greenport's new school. Second from the left on the front row is my dad Walter Jester (often called Chubby). The boy named Teddy Kidder is probably Teddy Fiedler. Date around 1936. Looks like we finally have it right! THANK YOU!!

Located on the Main Road in Mattituck, the Apple Tree will be remembered by many "older" readers.

In the 1960s it became "the place" for many teenagers of drinking age (as well as those daring enough to have a fake birth certificate to show at the door to prove they were 18!).

In the 70s and 80, now The Coach Stoppe, many of the Mattituck Slow Pitch leagues would gather there for pitchers of beer after ball games.

The Apple Tree exterior and bar, 1951, run by Victor and Helen Huttenlocker.

Today, as seen below, it still serves as a place to go to eat and have a cocktail.
