“central office” for this section was located in his home on Main Road, and during this time he was the chief operator and a most efficient one. His daughter, Isabelle, also became chief operator for a number of years (see the Peconic Bay Shopper, February 2021). Conklin was widely known as a livestock breeder and dealer. He was a great lover of fine horses and derived much pleasure in riding and driving. He would never learn to operate an automobile, preferring to drive behind a high-stepping trotter.

For many years, Mr. Conklin operated a large farm until his holdings became so valuable that he developed them for residential purposes. His wife Abigail Goldsmith Conklin, and two daughters, Miss Isabelle Conklin of Mattituck, and Mrs. May C. Lupton of Riverhead, survive him; also one granddaughter, Miss Mary Lupton of Riverhead.

Mrs. Abbie Bryant S. Conklin, Obituary, Oct. 12, 1950

Mattituck lost one of its finest women on Thursday, October 5th, in the death of Mrs. Bryant S. Conklin in her 90th year. She was born Abbie Case Goldsmith in Cutchogue September 22, 1861, daughter of Nathan Goldsmith and Mary Case Goldsmith, she lived in Cutchogue until her marriage to Mr. Conklin, and spent the rest of her life in Mattituck, where she continually gave of her time and talent toward the betterment of the community. She was a real Christian and much of her interest and work centered in the Presbyterian Church, where she had been active as a Sunday School teacher, worker in the sewing society and missionary society, and member of the choir. She possessed a singing voice of exceptional quality and for years was a standby of the choir, and one of Mattituck's favorite soloists. She was also active in the famed Mattituck Literary Society of another era, and had been for a long time a trustee of the Bethany Cemetery Association.

At one time Mrs. Conklin operated her spacious home as a summer boarding house, called “Hillside Farm,” catering to a fine class of people who came back again and again. She did not live in the past, but maintained a keen interest in local and national affairs of the present time, enjoyed things that were modern, and took airplane rides in her eighties, she had been in general good health until June of this year, when she suffered a broken hip, and gradually failed.

The Mattituck Presbyterian Church, which had been built in 1830, was removed in 1853 to the west of the burying-ground and became the home of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

In 1896, when the Reverend Julius Nelson was pastor, the old Methodist Episcopal Church (i.e. the 1830 Presbyterian Church building) was turned and moved south on the property to be used as a chapel, and a new larger edifice with a bell tower was erected and joined to it (photo below). The largest of the memorial stained glass windows was erected in memory of Thomas Hallock who established the first Methodist Society in Mattituck and, in 1853, purchased the old Presbyterian Church building and moved it to the site now occupied by the new edifice. By sliding doors the chapel was connected to the main audience room of the church. (Currently, this building, minus the tower, is the home of the North Fork Community Theater.)

Mildred was born about July, 1885 at Patchogue, the daughter of Edward Lewis Conklin and Madeline L. Nichols of Patchogue. Mildred's parents had married at Bayport, November 5th, 1882. The ceremony was officiated by the Methodist Episcopal Minister, Julius Nelson, a brother-in-law of Edward and husband of Kate M. Conklin, Edward's sister. Mildred's father was a carpenter. Mildred's mother Madeline died at Patchogue, October 17, 1893, when Mildred was eight years old.

Mildred and her father's whereabouts are unknown until the photo of Effie Tanners Class, ca. 1896, (Peconic Bay Shopper, February 2021) and her father's marriage to Henrietta Rose Mapes, 1899, when he was a resident of Mattituck. By the spring of 1899, Edward's brother-in-law, the Rev. Julius Nelson, had been Minister at the Methodist Episcopal Church in Mattituck for four years. Reverend Nelson had been pastor in 1896 when the new beautiful edifice of the Methodist Episcopal Church had been erected (see photos above). Rev. Nelson left Mattituck ten days after he married Edward, and headed to the Huntington area to take over the ministry of several churches there. It appears that Reverend Nelson took Mildred, his niece, with him.

Mildred became a nurse by 1915, and never married. She died Nov. 13, 1918 at Bridgeport, Fairfield County, CT. She was thirty-three years old at her death, just a year older than her mother had been when she had died. (Rev. J. Nelson was born in Copenhagen, Denmark, in 1840, and reared in the Lutheran faith. Coming to this country in 1859, he served three years in the U. S. Army. He spent a number of years on the Brooklyn Police Force before becoming a Methodist Episcopal Minister.)

Edith M. Cooper (Age 10) was born August 9, 1887, the daughter of Arthur S. Cooper and Ettie C. Sanford of Mattituck and Baiting Hollow. Her father was a farmer. Arthur and Etta married late 1880 to early 1881. The Traveler reports he bought a large farm at Baiting Hollow, fixed up the place including a new roof on the house, but within a year turned the place over to leasing. The cause was lingering illness, then an operation in the city and death a few months later in September, 1889. A daughter was born after he died.

Edith married Clifford Dey Batty, August 16, 1915, at Mattituck. Clifford was born August 26, 1886, the son of Joseph Batty and Lucretia Wilbur. He was a farm laborer, and also had a turn as hostler at the Glenwood Hotel just before he married. Clifford died June 18, 1937 in a farming accident. Clifford is buried at Laurel Cemetery, Laurel. The Battys had two children: Viola C., who married Edward Gerald Sutherland; and Harman P. Batty [later Harrison Pennfield Batty] who married Violet Ross.

Tragic Death Friday at Laurel Crossing of the Long Island Railroad Clifford Batty Killed By West Bound Freight While Crossing on Cultivator

Clifford Batty, 53, was instantly killed on Friday morning, June 18th, at 10:30 by a west bound freight at the Laurel crossing. Batty was riding a cultivator towed by a tractor, driven by Swen Venski, when the accident occurred. Both were employed by Felix Rutkowski, a farmer of Laurel. Venski was only slightly injured and remained in Eastern Long Island Hospital until Tuesday, June 22nd, when he was discharged.

Edith's family broke up sometime between 1925 and 1930; the break-up appears to be extreme. The parents, Edith and Clifford, do not appear to live together, and the children were farmed out to relatives. The son Harmon soon is an inmate in a correction institution for teenagers and the daughter changes her surname to "Cooper," her mother's maiden name. Edith died November 27, 1947 in Manhattan, and she is buried at St. Charles Cemetery, Farmingdale.

This first installment tells the stories of the first eight (alphabetically) children in Mayme Tanner's Primary Class (1897-1898) at the Mattituck Public School. We hope our readers will look forward to future installments. As is our custom, we request that if you have any information to contribute to this history, please email the Peconic Bay Shopper.

Saturday June 19, ANNUAL YARD SALE 8:30am at the historic Prince Building, 54325 Main Rd., Southold. No early birds please. Cash only. Kindly bring a reusable bag to bring home your finds.

June 20-July 31, Ten Squared: Summer Solstice, a 10" x 10" Online Art Exhibition and Sale, a fundraiser to benefit the Society. In this non-juried exhibition, artists have submitted pieces that are exactly 10"x 10". Each work is sold for $100, half of which benefits the Society. Purchase works by your favorite local artists at a modest price, while supporting the museum. The varied selection ensures there is something for everyone. Everyone is invited to view the exhibition, and those who wish may purchase. Shipping is available as well. The online exhibit and sale will be offered on the Society's website.

July 1, July 3, and Ongoing, "WHAT'S OLD IS NEW AGAIN!" Reopening Weekend at Southold Historical Society After the COVID-19 pandemic resulted in shuttered museum locations in 2020, beginning July 1, the museum locations will be reopening.

July 1 at 4pm, The museum will be revealing a new look – both a new logo and an updated name. After a brief ceremony, visitors are invited to explore the buildings which have been reinvigorated. Refreshments will be served.

In the Ann Currie-Bell house, the seasonal exhibit, "The Roaring Twenties," curated by volunteer Lee Cleary, will be on view, offering a glimpse into this exciting decade including three overall themes: prohibition, rum-running, speakeasies; lifestyle and fashion; and women's suffrage. At the Thomas Moore/Samuel Landon house, the "Enslavement in Southold" exhibit has been reinterpreted to include the narrative of the enslaved people within the story of the house – as would have been the case in the 1750s. The Reichert Family Barn has also been updated and includes new interpretive labels to help guide visitors.

July 3 at 12:30pm, The museum is hosting a Brick Dedication at the Boxwood Garden on the Maple Lane Complex. Come celebrate the newest installation of commemorative bricks and share some of the sentiments behind them. Light refreshments will be served.

Beginning July 3, volunteers will greet visitors and guide them through the Nautical Museum at Horton Point Lighthouse. Regular hours at the Lighthouse will be Saturday and Sunday from 11am-4pm through September 12.

UPCOMING EXHIBIT: America in Print: Prints, Lithographs and Etchings from the SCHS Collection. In our Staas Gallery June 11-Sept. 25, 2021. Before the 1800s, art was largely reserved for the wealthy, but with the invention of lithography in 1796 – and particularly color lithography in 1837 - printers were able to mass-produce beautiful color prints that were cheap enough for anyone to buy. Suddenly, art was available to all and everyone could decorate their homes and offices with any of the thousands of images offered by such notable printers as Louis Prang, Napoleon Sarony, and Currier and Ives. Featuring themes of nineteenth-century life in landscapes, cityscapes, ships, racehorses, scenes from literature, politics, Civil War battle scenes, and rare examples of "lithographic Long Island," this exhibit captures the evolution of an American art form.

UPCOMING ART SHOW: Downtown Reflection Series: Reflection Photography by Carole J. Amodio. In our Gish Gallery June 18 – July 31, 2021. This photography series is a visual delight, walking the viewer through a series of favorite Long Island downtowns, capturing not only the charm of the storefronts but also the bustle of activity as it appears reflected off of the stores' windowpanes. What results is a visual mirage of color and themes that dazzles the senses, taking in street scenes filled with reflected activity. This exhibit will also feature highlights of NYC reflections, which beautifully complement the theme.

INTERACTIVE EXHIBIT: What the #*!! Is THAT?: Ordinary Objects From Yesteryear That Are Mysteries to Our Modern Eyes. In our Weathervane Gallery thru Sept. 11, 2021. The objects we use to get through an ordinary day have changed tremendously over time, so much so that many everyday items once used at work or at home by our grandparents (or great-grandparents) are now virtually unrecognizable. This exhibit showcases a selection of the most mysterious, interesting, and challenging objects from our collection to baffle, befuddle, and bemuse. Can you guess what they are? Bring your cellphone for an interactive experience! Exhibit curated by Richard Doctorow.

OFF-SITE EXHIBITION: Suffolk County Pine Barrens Pictorial Exhibit. A display on loan from the SCHS provides an overview of the history of the Pine Barrens and the critical role this region plays in the protection of our precious groundwater. On display at the SCWA Education Center: 260 Motor Pkwy, Hauppauge. 631-292-6565 or EdCenterTours@SCWA.com.

ONGOING: Membership Drive! Membership Drive! Celebrating 135 years! Join the Suffolk County Historical Society and support local history preservation. Founded in 1886, SCHS is a non-profit organization that collects and preserves the rich history of Suffolk County. We operate a history museum, offer an expansive library and archives, and host a multitude of events, programs, and educational lectures and workshops. THE GREAT ROTARY LOBSTERFEST SATURDAY, JULY 31

The LobsterFest is the perfect event for families, friends, singles, and couples, at the Greenport School, Main Road, Greenport. The combined efforts of two Rotary Clubs, Greenport and Southold, have made this fundraiser one of the most popular happenings for over 3 decades. Funds raised from this affair enable the Rotary Clubs to continue supporting local charitable organizations, awarding scholarships, and helping families in need.

In 2020, due to Covid challenges, LobsterFest organizers reimagined the seaside picnic-style party and reinvented it to be a wildly successful, hands-free, Covid compliant event. The health and safety of all serving volunteers and dining patrons was first priority. Thus, the same format will be replicated this year.

Tickets prices: $55 per adult dinner, $5 per child hot dog dinner. Available on line at: www.GreenportRotary.net. This year's LobsterFest will have the addition of free raffle tickets to all adult diners and a chance to win $1000, gold earrings, or two tickets to LobsterFest 2022. For additional information or help with ordering on line, call: George Marsich – (631)905-8194 or Roger Satnick – (631) 765-1061.

Established in 1978, the PBS has provided historical photos and stories by local authors about places, people and events from past decades for over 40 years. Our goal is to help record and preserve North Fork history.

Local residents can enjoy a look at the past (many who grew up locally can "remember when") and visitors can see where to shop, eat or find a service provider. From May through December a centerfold map guides tourists to stores, eateries and services. A Calendar of Events is also a part of every issue, with free listings for local organizations. In addition to issues being available in local stores, pdfs of recent issues can be found at www.academyprintingservices.com
