THE GREENPORT MOVIE THEATER

In this picture the theater building looks massive. Across the street from the movie theater was a gas station (note the pump) and a car wash was on the lot now occupied by The Menhaden. The corner hotel dwarfs the theater building. The original theater building was destroyed by the 1938 Hurricane, shown on the right.

NEW EXHIBIT! Beyond the Gates: Long Island's Grand Estates of Yesteryear.

From the Gilded Age to Great Gatsby's 1920s, recognizable names like the Vanderbilts, Roosevelts, Havemeyers, and Woolworths enjoyed their countryside vacation estates built across Long Island. Reminiscent of English country homes, these estates are still appreciated today for their architectural beauty and grandeur. This 1930s aerial photography show includes some of the earliest glimpses of what was found beyond the gates.... Exhibit runs now to June 25, 2022 in our Gish Gallery.

INVENTING CHILDHOOD: Victorian Era Toys, Games, and Dolls, and the Invention of the Modern Child.

In our Weathervane Gallery thru April 3. "Childhood" has not always been what it is today; in fact, for most of history it was something very different indeed. Children were viewed as mini-adults, and childhood a time for strict moral instruction, or work, or both. Changes in attitude came slowly, with the final great shift towards "modern childhood" blossoming in the Victorian era. Childhood finally became seen as a time of carefree innocence and fun! See dozens of Victorian Era childhood wonders from our collection – toys, dolls, card games, boardgames, puzzles. and more. See life through the eyes of a child living a century or more ago! We guarantee you'll find something to warm your heart.

AMERICA IN PRINT: Prints, Lithographs, & Etchings from the SCHS Collection. In our Grand Staas Gallery. Before the 1800s, art was reserved for the wealthy, but with the invention of lithography in 1796 – and particularly color lithography in 1837 - printers could mass-produce beautiful color prints cheap enough for anyone to buy. Suddenly, art was available to all from such printers as Louis Prang, Napoleon Sarony, and Currier & Ives. Featuring themes of nineteenth-century life, as well as rare examples of "lithographic Long Island," this exhibit captures the evolution of an American art form.

DAR GENEALOGY WORKSHOP. Saturday April 30, 1pm. Our popular DAR workshop is finally back on the calendar, and it will once again be co-sponsored by the DAR's Suffolk Chapter, founded in 1920! A team of professional genealogists from the Daughters of the American Revolution will give a genealogy presentation promptly at 1:00 p.m. aimed at assisting those interested in applying for DAR membership. The genealogy presentation will be followed by personalized (individual and small-group) assistance until 4:00 p.m. Bring your questions, your family history paperwork, a notebook, and a laptop if you have one! Registration is required for this limited-seating event. Members Free; Non-Members $5. Reserve early! 631-727-2881 x100

SILVERBROOK ART GLASS WORKS (1943-1976). In our History in the Hall display cases. For the first time in over 30 years our entire Silverbrook Collection is showcased in our museum! After fleeing their native Czechoslovakia in 1937 in fear of a Hitler invasion, the Kreutz brothers came to the United States as fifth-generation glass-blowers, settling in Suffolk County and establishing their glassworks company on Flanders Road in Riverhead. Unlike most other glassware manufactured by machinery at the time, the Kreutz brothers used the traditional centuries-old hand-blown glass techniques they had learned in their homeland.

OFF-SITE EXHIBITION: Suffolk County Pine Barrens Pictorial Exhibit. A standing display on loan from the Suffolk County Historical Society provides an overview of the history of the Pine Barrens and the critical role this region plays in the protection of Suffolk County's precious groundwater. On display at the Suffolk County Water Authority Education Center: 260 Motor Pkwy, Hauppauge, NY. 631-292-6565 or EdCenterTours@SCWA.com.

ONGOING: Membership Drive!

Celebrating 135 years! Join the Suffolk County Historical Society and support local history preservation. Founded in 1886, SCHS is a non-profit organization that collects and preserves the rich history of Suffolk County. We operate a history museum, offer an expansive library and archives, and host a multitude of events, programs, and educational lectures and workshops.
