On The Cover—

This circa 1930 shot shows the aftermath of a furious thunderstorm that hit Peconic Lane on a hot August afternoon. The large oak was toppled by high winds, killing a local farmer as he was riding past on his buckboard. See an additional view in the photo on facing page.)

There are many stories and information emerging for the history of this Southold building pictured (from the 1950's) on our October 2018 cover. The above view, circa 1870, shows a busy front porch and a much used driveway up to the rear of the building, where there was access to the cellar. We were told a furniture store was street level with an undertaker business housed in the basement (see photo on facing page). We hope to have more to follow up on this. Photo courtesy of the R. C. MENORAH & CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTING SUNDAY DECEMBER 2

Congregation Tifereth Israel invites Jews and non-Jews to Mitchell Park at 5pm to witness the lighting of Greenport's Hanukkah menorah, which is taking place this year on the first night of the eight-night holiday. In the spirit of ecumenism, the menorah will remain lighted throughout the holiday season, sharing the park with the Village's Christmas tree in a display of friendship and respect among religions. The synagogue invites all those who attend to join the members and friends of the congregation for a Hanukkah party in the community room of the synagogue. Latkes (potato pancakes) and jelly doughnuts (traditional foods associated with Hanukkah) will be served. Kvetch, a klezmer band, will add to the festivities, thanks to a contribution from the Marshall S. Hurwitz Fund. Musicians are Andrea Urist, flute/tenor sax; Steve Wishnia, bass; Marilyn Glickman Gold, accordion; and Peter Kowalsky, doumbek/Greek baglama/baritone horn. Rabbi Gadi Capela, spiritual leader of the synagogue, will lead those attending the menorah lighting ceremony in blessings and songs of the holiday. Scheduled to participate in the Mitchell Park program are synagogue president Susan Rosenstreich and other local dignitaries. The synagogue is located at 519 Fourth Street, immediately south of the intersection of Front and Fourth Streets. Sunday November 4, noon BARN DEDICATION of the Reichert Family Barn. Community members are invited to attend as we acknowledge the wonderful generosity of Charles and Helen Reichert and celebrate the historic nature of this beautiful 1700s barn. The barn, known formerly as the Pine Neck Barn, was moved to the Society's property in the 1960's and has seen increasing use for events and programs. This year, Santa will happily greet children in the Reichert Family Barn. After the ceremony, attendees are invited to explore the barn. There will be light refreshments. The barn is located in the center of the museum complex, located at 55200 Main Rd. Southold.

Thursday November 8, noon-8pm HARVEST DINNER AT O'MALLY'S RESTAURANT, 44780 Rt. 48, Southold. Join us for an evening of good company and good food. Dinner includes salad, entrée (choose between pot roast or salmon- vegetarian entrée available upon request) coffee or tea, and dessert. Tickets are $30 (gratuity included) and are on sale at the Society Office at the Prince Building, 54325 Main Road, Southold through November 7. (Monday - Friday 10am-2pm). Ticket will also be available at the door the day of the dinner. There will also be a 50/50 raffle at the event.

Friday, November 23, 3-6pm ANNUAL CANDLELIGHT TOUR at the Museum Complex, 55200 Main Road, Southold. A delightful way to start the celebration of the holiday season. This is a magical time for our members, their families and the community to come together to have some good old-fashioned fun—visiting Santa in the Barn and touring our historic houses, print shop, blacksmith shop and other buildings. This year the "Festive Victorian Decorators" will return to adorn the Ann Currie-Bell House. And don't miss the Thomas Moore House, which is decorated in a colonial style. Throughout the complex, there will be craft demonstrations, games, raffles and refreshments. This is a free event to the community. Southold Historical Society thanks the local businesses, Santa's Tree Farm, Southold Pharmacy, Chick's Agway and Dart's Tree Farm for their contributions as well as many other individual and business supporters.

Saturdays and Sundays, November 24 & 25, December 1 & 2, 1-4pm THE HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS SHOW HOUSE open for viewing. Tickets ($10 for adults, children free) are available at the door or at the Southold Historical Society Office, 54325 Main Rd, Southold (Monday through Friday 10am-2pm). The Festive Victorian Decorators have transformed the iconic Victorian home of Ann Currie-Bell into a magical Christmas setting from the past. The house is part of the Southold Museum Complex, 55200 Main Rd, Southold. This Show House was built in 1900 and lived in by only one family before becoming part of the Southold Historical Society. The Southold Historical Society Victorian Decorators is a group of volunteers who have adorned the first floor rooms of the Ann Currie-Bell house for many years. "There are many real estate agents you could choose to work with - but very few have the track record of success that I've generated over the last 30 years. Whether it's marketing unique properties, negotiating the best deal, or tracking down just the right house for a discerning buyer, I've proven that I'm able to not only meet but exceed expectations every time."
