Sun., Nov. 10, 2pm CONCERT: "Thankful" with Sheri Miller, acclaimed singer. To celebrate the gratitude of the Thanksgiving month, Sheri will sing a range of popular classics that express this sentiment; songs such as "Wonderful World" by Louis Armstrong, "Over The Rainbow" by Judy Garland, "I Want To Hold Your Hand" by The Beatles, and "True Love" by Patsy Cline. All are welcome. FREE.

Tues., Nov. 12, 5 p.m. – WIRE PENDANT. Follow step-by-step instructions to create your own unique wire pendant. All materials are provided. Requires a $10 non-refundable registration fee (Adults Only). Register at the Circulation Desk.

Wed., Nov. 13 & 20, pm– Orange All Around for ages 4-5 (preschool). Join us for fun stories, and art activities featuring the color Orange. Registration is required. FREE.

Thurs., Nov. 14, 4pm LEGO for grades 4-6. Design your own Lego creation with Library Legos. Enjoy seeing it on display. Registration is required. FREE.

Thurs., Nov. 14, 6pm MINUTE TO WIN IT for grades 7-12. Are you ready for a challenge? Teens will compete with peers to complete several Minute to Win It challenges. See if you have what it takes to win the competition! Registration is required. FREE.

Fri., Nov. 15, 1:30pm FILM: Brian Banks (2018 PG-13) A football player's dreams to play in the NFL are halted when he is wrongly convicted and sent to prison. Years later, he fights to clear his name. FREE.

Fri., Nov. 15, 2-5pm VIRTUAL REALITY with HTC VIVE. Come experience the world of Virtual Reality with the library's HTC VIVE system. Each participant will be given the opportunity to use the VIVE for thirty minutes. Reserve a time at the Circulation Desk. For ages 12 and up. FREE.

Sun., Nov. 17, 2pm JOURNEY FROM JOHANNESBURG. Toby Tobias tells his story of growing up in Johannesburg, South Africa, and Jerusalem, Israel, and finally New York. The show's message is one of racial equality, of understanding each other's culture and religion, and of finding unity in a world which seeks to divide. Tobias's engaging presentation is a collection of images, songs and vignettes. Register. FREE.

Mon., Nov. 18, 4pm CAMPFIRE S'MORES for grades K-1. Have "Smore" fun while we tell stories and play games. Registration is required. FREE.

Tues., Nov. 19, 1:30-3pm Health Insurance Counseling. Individual, confidential, accurate info and guidance for seniors and Medicare eligible persons, sponsored by the Suffolk County Office for the Aging. Call the circulation desk for an appointment. FREE.

NOVEMBER IN THE LIBRARY'S ART GALLERY: Paintings by Jo-Ann Corretti, Mattituck Artist, who has been painting the North Fork for 35 years. "I love painting commissions such as Home and Garden Portraits, and they make greatly appreciated gifts. I paint every detail. My portraits of local B&Bs included their pots of flowers, wicker chairs, American flags, and all the decorative moldings; details that make the paintings so personal. I LOVE being an Artist ..." joannacorretti.com

November 13 Opening of Long Island in Conflict. Free museum admission for Veterans of all wars during Veterans Day Week, November 13-16! This newly renovated permanent exhibit offers examples of uniforms, weapons, medals, and other objects honoring Long Island's contribution to our country's defense. From the earliest days of settlement, Long Islanders have played an active role in the nation's military history—on battlefields, in theaters of operation, and in conflicts wherever American armies fought, including on Long Island itself during the American Revolution. On the home front, residents raised money, food, and supplies, and they provided the links to home and family so crucial to a soldier's performance. The Civil War and the two World Wars saw the largest numbers of Long Islanders in uniform. During the twentieth century, Long Island was the site of major military training grounds, encampments, and airfields. Local industries turned out boats, ships, and torpedoes, and from the 1930s to the 1990s, many of the nation's military aircraft were built right here. More info.: 631-727-2881 x100.

Saturday, December 7, 10am-4:30pm – 9TH ANNUAL WOODEN WONDERLAND: Holiday Craft Show & Sale! Free admission. Our annual family-friendly event will feature handmade wooden items as well as other local artisans' wares. Features include holiday art & crafts, ornaments, home décor, rustic Santas and gnomes, unique handmade carvings, handmade candles, hats, and scarves, wooden wine racks, wreaths, 3D cards, pottery, clothing, and more! Live woodworking and woodcarving demonstrations will go on all day indoors in our historic galleries and outdoors on our Great Lawn. Fun for the whole family! More info.: 631-727-2881 x100.

EXHIBITS

What's Your Compass? A Women Sharing Art Multimedia Exhibit featuring the work of over three dozen Long Island women artists. An instrument used to show direction, a compass gives orientation to where one has been and where one is going. Metaphorically, a compass is a symbol for guidance, bearing, and forging one's path. Artist-members of Women Sharing Art, Inc., presents this multimedia art exhibit in our Gish Gallery thru December 21, 2019.

Native People of the Eastern Woodlands: Art and Artifacts. The Eastern Woodlands is a cultural area of the indigenous people of North America, consisting of tribes inhabiting the US and Canada, east of the Mississippi. Their art and artifacts reflect their deep-rooted culture. This exhibit in our Staas Gallery showcases modern native artists exploring historic themes and identities alongside earlier works. Art, artifacts, carvings, portraits, and tribal dress combine in this celebration. Exhibit curated by Jamie Reason. In our Grand Staas Gallery through February 2020.

When Women Wore Whales: The Story of How Whalebone Shaped 19th-Century Fashion. A display of 19th-century photographs, fashion magazine plates, whaling tools, corsets, parasols, and exquisite dresses showing the changes in fashion from 1820 to 1920. Explores the fascinating and vital role the U.S. whaling industry in 19th-century fashion. Curated by Richard Doctorow. In our Weathervane Gallery until Dec. 20, 2019.

OFF-SITE EXHIBITION

Suffolk County Pine Barrens Pictorial Exhibit. A standing display provides an overview of the history of the Pine Barrens and its critical role this region plays in the protection of precious groundwater. On display at the SCWA Education Center: 260 Motor Pkwy, Hauppauge, NY. 631-292-6565 or EdCenterTours@SCWA.com.

SCHS PHOTO OF THE WEEK SERIES! To subscribe to our free and popular historic photo-story series, visit our website or send an email request to librarian Wendy Polhemus-Annibell: wannibell@schs-museum.org

ONGOING: Membership Drive! Join the Suffolk County Historical Society and support local history preservation. Founded in 1886, SCHS is a non-profit organization that collects and preserves the rich history of Suffolk County. We operate a history museum, offer an expansive library and archives, and host a multitude of events, programs, and educational lectures and workshops. Our unique collection reflects more than three centuries of local history. Visit our website or call 631-727-2881 to join.
