RIVAL QUEENS, VIRTUAL PERFORMANCE & LIVE EXCHANGE SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 5pm

The Story of Mary Queen of Scots & Queen Elizabeth I featuring music from Donizetti's Maria Stuarda...an original production telling the story of two dueling queens: One Catholic & One Protestant. Rival Queens is a historic metaphor for the tragedy of judgment and choosing fear over trust, painting a powerful picture of the destruction that the naked push for power leaves in its wake. The documentary opera's themes of power, femininity and whether & how these two dynamics can be reconciled are topics we continue to explore today and which merit re-examination through the lens of time. Tudor England is in many ways reminiscent of all the strife in our own society and the struggle for differing voices to be heard. We hope that learning about this story can inspire members of the community to learn more about and understand each other in order to prevent future conflict and encourage cooperation.

This performance will be pre-recorded. (50 minutes)

The week of event, you will receive one link to view the performance on November 14th and one link to join a post-performance live Zoom discussion hosted by Ashley Galvani Bell and ROSMF Founder, Paolo Bartolani

Ticket are $35 general audience, $25 Friends of Rites of Spring
