At Wayside Market
we take pride in our customer's bragging rights. Family owned and operated, we're a father-daughter duo crafting custom butcher cuts to order. We're old-world market and old school NY style deli located among the vineyards and salt water on the North Fork of Long Island, NY. We offer only the best quality home-made, hearty food, and USDA prime-aged craft butcher cuts. We've been in business for over 50 years, the first deli on the North Fork and the longest lasting butcher in the area. We're your personal farm-to-table all-American craft butcher.

Reader Feedback!

Our September issue had the above photo captioned "Mr. Easten's Class, Southold High School, c. 1914 of the Class of 1916" and the names provided by the late Doris Moeller Foster were Top row, left to right: Doris Valentine, Mrs. Sophie Hansen, Josephine Diaz, Blanch Howard, Front row, left to right: Arthur Hunton, Chubby Hester, Teddy Kider, Eddie (?), Donald (?)

We were contacted by Joy Strasser who wrote:

You have me terribly confused about the photo and details for Southold School on your cover. Class of 1916? Their clothes are not of that time. The two children that I can follow are Arthur C. Hunton born in 1924 and Blanch Howard born in 1921 and they both lived in Greenport. Doris Price Moeller Foster was of the same age as these children, born in 1921. According to her obit she attended East Cutchogue school and then Southold High School.

I look forward to the next issue when you might have the answers to this puzzle. ;-)

We asked if any readers could help....

Part of the puzzle solved...

Assuming Joy's information dating the birth years of the students in Mr. Easten's class photo is correct, that would make that photo from the mid-1930s. Maybe a reader will be able to fill in the blanks!

Nov.15 - Dec. 15: Online Art Exhibition and Sale: Ten Squared: A Season for Art

Back by popular demand, Ten Squared is a fundraising exhibit and sale. In this non-juried exhibition, artists have submitted pieces 10" x 10". Each work will be sold for $100, half of which will benefit Southold Historical Museum. View online.

Friday, November 25, 3-6pm Annual Candlelight Tour & Tree Lighting at the Maple Lane Complex. Visit Santa in the Barn as he greets children alongside a beautiful Christmas Tree decorated by local Girl Scouts. Tour our historic houses including the 18th Century Thomas Moore House and the Victorian Ann Currie-Bell House which includes a new Christmas Village display this year. Watch carpentry, blacksmith, basket weaving, and print shop demonstrations. Children will enjoy games on the lawn with Santa's helper. There is live music throughout the event. Cheer as the Museum Christmas Tree is lit at 5pm. Admission is free; donations accepted. Light refreshments available for purchase. We are also partnering with the Peconic Land Trust for a tour of the newly restored 1747 historic Lt. Moses Case House on the corner of Horton's Lane and Route 48. Stop by for a tour between 2pm-4:30pm. Call or email for more information.

Saturday, November 26: SHOP SMALL SATURDAY IN SOUTHOLD. The Saturday after Thanksgiving is a day to visit your local merchants to find unique holiday gifts. American Express is also running a promotion where you'll find great giveaways at our Treasure Exchange and Museum Gift Shop, both located at 54325 Main Rd., Southold. Browse thoughtful gift items, seasonal goods, tableware, decorative accents, jewelry and vintage children's toys, as well as books on local history, art, cooking and other local themed items. Both open 11am-3pm.

Saturday, December 3, 9am-4pm Annual Holiday Fair at the Southold Town Recreation Center, 970 Peconic Lane, Peconic. Volunteers have been busy planning this festive event and auction which supports the work of SHM. A great variety of vendors and talented local artisans will be on hand with unique holiday gifts for all. The "Holiday Auction" will feature gift baskets for all ages. Take a chance to win one for yourself or to give as a holiday gift. There will be a bake sale and "café" for snacks as well as crafts for children. Families won't want to miss Santa who will greet children from 11am-1pm. Admission to the event is free. Call or email for more information.

BUY A PERSONALIZED ENGRAVED BRICK in our garden at the Maple Lane Complex as a thoughtful tribute to a friend or family member. It's a wonderful opportunity to give a timeless gift to our community and become a part of Southold's history. Each 4x8 brick is permanently engraved with an inscription of your choice. Now through 5/20/2023: From Archie to Zany: 65 Years of Comic Book Art by Stan Goldberg, 1-3pm. $5 admission, $3/seniors, members free. Includes light refreshments. Presented in our Weathervane Gallery by the Jewish Historical Society of LI and curated by Brad Kolodny, showcasing the nearly 70 years of work of the comic book artist from his work as a colorist in the 1940s to his helping to create Marvel superheroes in the 1960s to another 40 years of drawing Archie and his pals at Riverdale High.

Saturday, Nov. 12, 1pm BOOK & BOTTLE: The True Story of the Culper Spy Ring, with author Bill Bleyer. Learn the true story from former Newsday reporter Bill Bleyer, author of George Washington’s Long Island Spy Ring: A History and Tour Guide. This slide presentation and lecture will separate facts from fiction and detail the ingenious operation of the intelligence network that helped the Patriots win the war. This event will conclude with a Book Sale & Author Signing. The author will make all five of his books available for a flat fee of $24 to $26 each. Members Free; Non-Members $8. Includes light refreshments. Registration & non-refundable prepayment required: 631-727-2881 x100. Reserve early! Sellout risk is high!

Saturday, Dec. 10, 1pm BOOK & BOTTLE: WPA Art & Artists: Long Island’s New Deal Legacy, with Jim “Zak” Szakmary. The presenter will take on a slideshow tour of local WPA-inspired art & artists across Long Island. The Works Progress Administration, our nation’s largest and most ambitious American New Deal agency, offered millions of unemployed Americans jobs during the Great Depression. Public buildings, roads, and bridges were built, but also artists were employed to create murals, easel paintings, sculpture, graphic art, posters, photography, theater scenic design, and arts and crafts. Learn about the Long Island WPA artists and the historic artworks they created in the 1930s--and where on the island you can still find these pieces. Members Free, Non-Members $8. Includes refreshments. Registration + non-refundable prepayment required. Space is limited! Call 631-727-2881 to reserve your spot!

BEYOND THE GATES: LONG ISLAND’S GRAND ESTATES OF YESTERYEAR. In our Gish Gallery. From the Gilded Age to Great Gatsby’s 1920s, recognizable names like the Vanderbilts, Roosevelts, Havemeyers, & Woolworths enjoyed their countryside vacation estates built across Long Island. Reminiscent of English country homes, these estates are still appreciated today for their architectural beauty & grandeur. This 1930s aerial photography show includes some of the earliest glimpses of what was beyond the gates....

AMERICA IN PRINT: Prints, Lithographs, & Etchings from the SCHS Collection. In our Grand Staas Gallery. Before the 1800s, art was reserved for the wealthy, but with the invention of lithography in 1796 printers could mass-produce beautiful color prints cheap enough for anyone to buy. Suddenly, art was available to all from such printers as Louis Prang, Napoleon Sarony, and Currier & Ives. Featuring themes of nineteenth-century life and rare examples of “lithographic Long Island,” this exhibit captures the evolution of an American art form.

SILVERBROOK ART GLASS WORKS (1943-1976). In our History in the Hall display cases. After fleeing their native Czechoslovakia in 1937 in fear of a Hitler invasion, the Kreutz brothers came to the United States as fifth-generation glass-blowers, settling in Suffolk County and establishing their glassworks company on Flanders Road, Riverhead. The Kreutz brothers used the traditional centuries-old hand-blown glass techniques they had learned in their homeland.

OFF-SITE EXHIBITION: Suffolk County Pine Barrens Pictorial Exhibit providing an overview of the history of the Pine Barrens and the critical role this region plays in the protection of groundwater. On display at the Suffolk County Water Authority Education Center: 260 Motor Pkwy, Hauppauge. 631-292-6565 or EdCenterTours@SCWA.com.
