GREEVES FAMILY

In response to the Peconic Bay Shopper article, "Lightly Row": Installment 3, Miss Mamie Tanner's Primary Class (September 2021), Bobby Greeves, the grandson of J. Frederick Greeves, the Mattituck town barber, submitted these vintage photographs. Jerry Matovcik, Reference Librarian at Mattituck-Laurel Library, and Joseph O'Brien, researcher, met with Bobby Greaves to discuss the importance of these vintage Greaves photographs in understanding our local history. (All images on the following pages courtesy of Bobby Greeves.)

The Greeves' family home (c.1903) was located on the north side of Main Road, Mattituck, across from the public school at that time (the Mattituck-Laurel Library is now on the public school site). On the left is a young J. Frederick Greeves, the barber, his son Russell, and his wife Mary Ellen Stewart. As you can see in the photograph, Greeves also raised and sold Shetland ponies. The Greeves' home is located between Bryant Conklin's "Hillside Cottage" home to the west and the home of his wife's sister, Mrs. Annie Frances Stewart Helfrich to the east. The Greeves and Helfrich homes were identical in structure.
